OR2. Classic Cabernet Blends - 3 of Napa's Top Wineries

This exceptional case of wine features reds from three coveted wineries, each is an outstanding example of California winemaking at its best. Enjoy!

CASE INCLUDES:

- 2005 Peter Michael Les Pavots (4 bottles)
- 2005 Lewis Cellars Cuvee L (4 bottles)
- 2002 Dominus (4 bottles)

Peter Michaels Les Pavots: Typically two-thirds Cabernet Sauvignon, with the remainder roughly equal parts Cabernet Franc and Merlot, and a final soupçon of Petit Verdot. Enjoy this refined Cabernet blend with its signature blueberry notes, hint of herbs de Provence and its wonderful expression of the full spectrum of red Bordeaux varietals.

Lewis Cellars Cuvee L: There were only 150 cases of the 2005 Cuvée L produced. This is the crème de la crème of Cabernet from the Lewis estate, bottled from their best lots for a wine with even greater intensity, depth and complexity than the Reserve Cabernet.

Dominus: Structured, seamless and perfectly integrated, Dominus is an elegant wine that improves with age. Dominus Estate continues the tradition of producing a wine that expresses the characteristics of the Napanook Vineyard terroir.

Value: $2,400
Opening Bid: $750
Bid Increase Increments: $75

OR3. Wildhurst Vineyards – Mixed Case Reds

The Wildhurst name evokes the spreading California native oaks that dot the vineyard acreage, and the zest for nature and simple living that characterize this lovely rural area in Lake County. In this spirit, Wildhurst makes direct, hand-crafted wines from a winemaker's passion and a farmer's love of his land.

CASE INCLUDES:

- 4 bottles 2016 Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon:

Aged in 25% new French oak, the result is smooth and very varietal. Hints of dark cherries and berries arise on the nose followed by ever so slight aromas of chocolate and black pepper. As with most of winemaker Stephen's reds the acidity on this wine is crisp and stays in the forefront keeping the breadth of the wine sharp and not flabby. The aromas, acids, and alcohol are all in perfect balance. This wine can be enjoyed on its own, consumed with your favorite red meat, or even paired with your favorite cigar.

- 4 bottles 2014 Home Ranch Zinfandel:

Continuing a long tradition of BIG jammy Zinfandels crafted from the very first several rows of Zinfandel on the Holdenried ranch, this 2014 Home Ranch Zin is incredible. The wine has been aged in various types of oak barrels including both new and slightly used American and French oak. A real palate pleaser, this wine starts with wonderful ripe fruit aromas and a peppery zing to be followed by layers and layers of lush fruit, soft tannins, and spiciness.

- 4 bottles 2014 Home Ranch Merlot:

The base of this wine was made from a special section in the vineyard that in 2014 produced grapes of exceptional quality. With a bit of a wild fermented 2015 Merlot from the same spot in the vineyard blended back to it, this wine definitely earns our "Home Ranch" distinction! Certain to please both Merlot lovers and others, this incredibly complex wine really delivers. The powerful nose ripe with aromas of red fruits and berries leads the way for the taste explosion of fruit, tannin, and oak that seem to present themselves harmoniously. And the finish is superb: it goes and goes and goes.
